

PHASES

Support provided during instruction

Examples

1. DEFINE PROBLEM

- Infographics to show the skills and sub skills
- Prompt questions to activate prior knowledge
- Process worksheets to determine info needed
- Driving questions to formulate the problem

- The 1st step you should take is.....
- What info I need to solve this problem?
- Write down on your own words the problem you have to solve:

2. SEARCH INFO

- Prompt questions to plan a web search
- Content-free messages to enrich the search
- Worksheets to promote reflection about search terms to be used and used

- What search terms would you type in the search engine?
- Which website have you chosen? Why?

SEARCH TERMS	SYNONYMS
•	•
•	•
•	•

3. SELECT INFO

- Worksheets to identify title, description, url, author, etc. of a search result
- Driving questions to assess content and reliability of search results

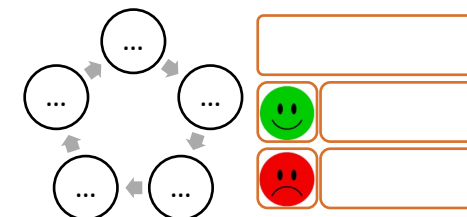

- What is this site about?
- Can it be useful to solve the task?
- Who published this website?
- With what purpose?
- Can I trust in this information?

4. PROCESS INFO

- Worksheets to identify the content of a site
- Prompt questions to select-store relevant info
- Pop-up messages to navigate and learn
- Charts and graphics to organize the info

- Complete the graphic with the relevant info found:

5. ORGANIZE AND PRESENT INFO

- Prompted writing templates
- Worksheets to promote reflection
- Content-free messages to enrich the presentation

- Don't copy-paste! Use your own words
- Elaborate pros and cons of this issue
- Present the info using the next template

